Cash When an Accident Sidelines You

Accidents happen, but your finances don't have to take a hit. If you get hurt, this plan gives you cash that could help with expenses not covered by health insurance, so you can focus on getting better instead of worrying about bills.

Consider this ...

While playing soccer, Sophia slipped and landed on her ankle. What was thought a sprain ended up requiring surgery and walking with the assistance of crutches for three months. The costs for her accident added up quickly – co-payments for the ER visit, crutches, and time away from work for her parent's to attend follow-up appointments. Thankfully Sophia's parents had purchased the Accident plan through Boston Mutual and received $1,400 to assist with expenses and relieve the financial stress of her accident.

Boston Mutual's Accident plan paid the following benefits:

▶ Emergency Room visit $350 (with enhanced ER benefit rider)	▶ Closed Fracture $600
▶ Appliance (crutches) $100	▶ MRI $150
▶ Follow-up visit $50	▶ Physical therapy $150 (6 visits)

TOTAL: $1,400
