Critical Illness Insurance

Cash When Health Insurance Isn't Enough

Critical Illness insurance gives you a lump sum of cash right away if you're diagnosed with a medical condition that's covered by the policy, whether or not you have health insurance.

A Major Illness Shouldn't Mean Financial Stress

If you're diagnosed with cancer, a heart attack, stroke, or another covered illness, this plan gives you a lump sum of cash to use however you need. Use it for medical bills, childcare, or lost income - it's up to you.

Your coverage starts protecting you as soon as you enroll.

Getting Critical Illness Coverage is Simple

- ◆ You pick how much insurance you want through your job - choose what works for your budget
- ◆ If you get diagnosed with a covered illness, we send cash straight to you
- ◆ You can use the money any way you need, and it won't affect your other insurance

Here's what you can use the money for:

- ✓ Everyday bills like rent, groceries, and utilities while you take time off work
- ✓ Travel costs to see specialists or get treatment
- ✓ Extra help at home during recovery, like childcare or meal delivery
- ✓ Medical costs not covered by your health insurance, such as deductibles

In California, you must have a health benefit plan in order to purchase this insurance.*

Not for use in CT, MA, NC, NH and PA.*

Take the Next Step
